

2002 Asia-Pacific Microwave Conference

APMC 2002

November 19-22, 2002
Kyoto International Conference Hall,
Kyoto, Japan

First Call for Papers

The 2002 Asia-Pacific Microwave Conference (APMC 2002) will be held at the Kyoto International Conference Hall, Kyoto, Japan, on November 19-22, 2002. This conference is organized and sponsored by the Institute of Electronics, Information and Communication Engineers (IEICE) of Japan, and will be cooperatively sponsored by IEEE MTT-S, URSI, IEEE MTT-S Japan Chapter and IEEE EDS Kansai Chapter.

CONFERENCE TOPICS

Active Devices and Circuits

Low-Noise Devices and Circuits, High-Power Devices and Circuits, Control Circuits (MIX, Osc., SW, etc.), MMICs and HMICs (Receivers, Transmitters, etc.), Silicon RF Devices

Passive Components

Filters and Resonators, Ferrite and Surface Wave Components, Packaging Techniques, Passive Devices and Circuits, Waveguides and Striplines

Systems

Communication Systems, Microwave Applications (ITS, SPS, etc.), Microwave Medical & Biological Applications/EMC/EMI, Phased Array Antenna Systems

Basic Theory and Techniques

Scattering and Propagation, Electromagnetic Field Theory and CAD, Antenna Theory, Microwave Antennas, Microwave Photonics, Microwave Superconductivity, Measurement Techniques

Emerging Technologies

RF MEMS, Active Antennas, Photonic Bandgap, Software Defined Radio, Wireless LAN and Bluetooth

SUBMISSION GUIDELINE:

For details, please refer to the complete Call for Papers available in November, 2001 from the APMC 2002 Web site at

WORKSHOPS AND SHORT COURSES

The APMC 2002 will provide exciting workshops and short courses conducted by a group of specialists in a wide range of interesting and timely subjects.

MICROWAVE EXHIBITION

The Microwave Exhibition in association with the Conference will be held concurrently. Please contact the following address for further information:

Microwave Exhibition

c/o REALIZE INC., 4-1-4 Hongo, Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo 113-0033, Japan

Phone: +81-3-3815-8590, Fax: +81-3-3815-8529, E-mail: mweapmc@blue.ocn.ne.jp

APMC PRIZE

Papers presented at APMC 2002 will be judged by the APMC 2002 Prize Award Committee, and the authors of selected papers will be awarded the APMC 2002 Prize for outstanding contributions to the microwave field.

KYOTO

Kyoto is a world-wide popular tourist city situated about 500 kilometers west of Tokyo and 40 kilometers northeast of Osaka. It served as the capital of Japan from 794 to 1868 and was the birthplace of Japanese culture and traditions. Kyoto is the home of various national treasures worthy of global pride as well as many historical buildings and traditional arts and crafts. To the south of Kyoto lies historical Nara, the more ancient capital between 710 and 784.
